Travel:

There is no VISA requirement for the visitors from most of the countries. However, please be aware that some of the participants may need VISA to visit Serbia and Montenegro. You could check the web page of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Serbia and Montenegro:

www.mfa.gov.yu/Visas/VisasR.htm

Those who plan to travel via Republic of Croatia should also check web site of Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Republic of Croatia.

www.mvp.hr

Herceg Novi is located nearby Tivat Airport (www.apativat.com). There are frequent flights (several flights a day) to Tivat Airport from Belgrade International Airport (www.airport-belgrade.co.yu), which is very good connected with many destinations worldwide. Domestic and many international companies have regular flights to Belgrade. You may check schedule of domestic companies JAT Airways (www.jat.com) and Montenegro Airlines (www.montenegroairlines.com/eng/) or look at the connections located at Belgrade Airport site (www.airport-belgrade.co.yu). In addition, you may choose to travel via Dubrovnik Airport in Croatia (www.airport-dubrovnik.hr) which is also very well connected to many international destinations and also located in vicinity of Herceg Novi (24 km).

Conference program and instructions for preparation of presentation will be sent to you after June 26th 2006. In the meantime I shall try to forward you all new information regarding forthcoming conference.

At this moment it is my pleasure to inform you that accepted presentations for the Conference come from scientists from 36 countries: Algérie, Australia, Austria, Azerbaijan, Belarus, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Brazil, Bulgaria, Canada, China, Czech Republic, France, Germany, Hungary, India, Iran, Italy, Japan, Korea, Latvia, Lithuania, Mexico, Moldova, Netherlands, Poland, Portugal, Qatar, Romania, Russia, Serbia and Montenegro, Spain, Sweden, Turkey, U.K., Ukraine and USA.

Best regards,

Dr. Miroslav Dramićanin
